Good Advices

We make the following extracts from a long editorial in the Irish Republic, addressed to the Irishmen of America:

"Now we have a few words to say to Irishmen who thus, by voting with the Democratic doctrine of Free Trade with England, are swelling the wealth and upholding the power of England. The man who votes for her trade -as all sisting, whether he knows it or not, to mit the new styles from market, sometime of continue the robbery and oppresion and wholesale nurder of mankind.

You owe a duty to the American Republic, to which, as good efficient, you mye worn to boar true allegiance. Has England ever been anything but FURNISHING the enemy of that Republic?

You owe a duty to Treland, the land or your birth. And is it come to this that Irishmen are the main support of the collaboration of the the party which can carry Free Trade the Democrats are resolved to do it, and if they can carry the country, will do it. Then the wealth of America and the world will be at the command of England. Then her power will be alike supreme and universal. Then fatewell to all hopes of Irish liberty. Are you prepared for this? Will you continue to substite the suprementation of the suprement io uphold it? If you do, then cease to prate about Fenianism or Irish national To be found in Northern Vermont. If you don't England, and by becoming such, proclaim yourselves traitors to your father's faith in the cternal cause of your spains country's liberty.

You owe a duty to your own children, and that is, to give them such support and education, such position and intelligence, as the decendants of freemen should possess and manifest. Put an end to English competition and your become will be doubled. You can do it by voting for and standing by those who will prohibit the landing of English Ties. manufactures on the American shores, But continue to do as you have been doing of late-that is, to vote for a false Democracy and a falser Free Trade with and the two or three dollars a day which you are still perhaps able to carn will soon "grow small by de-grees and beautifully less," until you find yourselves reduced to the English and Irish level of "sixpence a day and nothing found.
